NO ENTRY

For private vehicles to Chamundi Hill this Dasara

Mysuru, Sept. 13 (RK, MTY&BCT)- Forget about going on a long drive up to the iconic Chamundi Hill this Dasara. Instead, you can opt for reaching the temple through free KSRTC buses that will be operated from the Lalitha Mahal Helipad. The District Administration is likely to ban the entry of private vehicles to the Hill from Sept. 21 to Oct. 5 and a decision will be taken in one or two days.

The Administration is likely to take the decision in order to ensure the safety of tourists and to prevent parking chaos up the Hill. The ban will be imposed on all private vehicles including two-wheelers and four-wheelers.

It may be mentioned here that the Administration usually bans entry of private vehicles to the Hill during Ashada Fridays (Ashada Shukravara) and during the annual Chamundeshwari Vardhanti (birthday). Last year, the Administration had come up with the idea but had not implemented as there were no preparations. This year, however, there is sure to be a ban.

Traffic Assistant Commissioner of Police K.N. Madaiah has submitted a proposal to Deputy Commissioner of Police (Crime and Traffic) Dr. Vikram V. Amathe who has in-turn submitted the proposal to the Dasara Committee, headed by Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep.

The Police have requested the Committee to consider the ban and also to arrange KSRTC buses from Lalitha Mahal Palace Helipad to the Hill.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, DC Randeep said that actually, there was a proposal before the Administration for a permanent ban on private vehicles atop the Hill. "Daily ban is not feasible and private vehicles can be restricted only on the days there is heavy rush," he said and added that a final decision will be taken in a day or two.

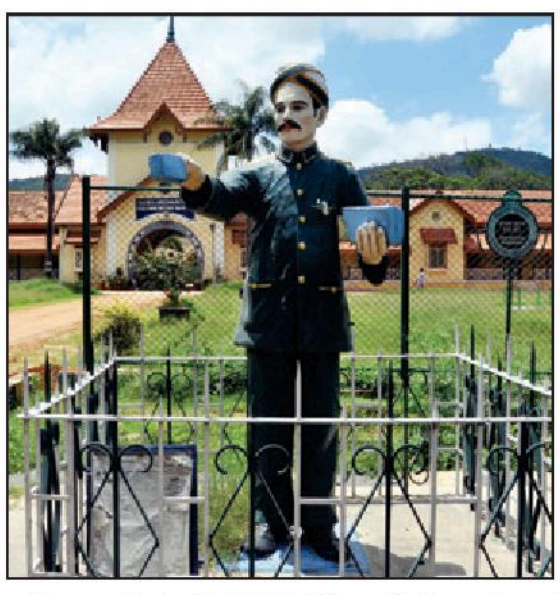
Traffic restrictions around Aahara Mela venue

Mysuru, Sept. 13- The District Administration has decided to ban the entry of vehicles to Scouts and Guides Grounds behind the Deputy Commissioner's Office where the Dasara Aahara Mela will be held from Sept. 21.

Movement of vehicles from the arch on Hunsur Road till the Maharaja's College Grounds will be banned. Only VVIP vehicles and the vehicles owned by food stall owners will be allowed. The entire area will be barricaded and people have to walk from the designated parking spaces to reach the Aahara Mela venue.

The decision has been taken at a meeting between Assistant Commissioner of Traffic K.N. Madaiah and Senior Deputy Director of Food and Civil Supplies Dr. K. Rameshwarappa a couple of days back. Parking arrangements for Aahara Mela visitors will be arranged at Maharaja's College Grounds, Yuvaraja's College, Maharani's College, Government Officers' Club, ZP office, Volleyball Grounds and Ursu Boarding School.

Iconic Postman, Policeman statues to be shifted soon



Mysuru, Sept. 13 (RK&BCT)- Very soon, the life-size statues of a Postman and a Policeman on the Race Course Road, in front of KARP Mounted Police Headquarters, will be shifted to conserve the heritage-value figures. The Heritage Area Development Committee has submitted a report to the District Heritage Committee headed by Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep and the Committee has decided to shift the statue.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, DC Randeep said that the decision was taken a week ago when the Heritage Committee met. "The two statues are facing a threat as there is a lot of pressure on the road due to high vehicle density. Moreover, the road will have to be widened. The statues will be shifted within the Mounted Police Headquarters and they will be placed in such a way that the visibility is not obstructed," the DC said.

Insurgency by indigenous intelligentsia

Intelligence has been defined in many ways as including one's penchant for logic, understanding issues, self-awareness, learning level, emotional feelings, planning capacity, ability to solve problems and even creativity. The country hosts an abundant stock of individuals who answer to most of the above-listed characteristics, given the reports in the media covering their speeches on public platforms 365 days a year, in addition to their writings in the form of articles with impressive rhetoric in languages of their respective proficiency, including Kannada. Giving them august company are both seasoned and emerging politicos who appear on the scene not only during their periodic poll campaigns but also on the floor of Legislative Assemblies of States and the Nation's Parliament, never mind their language rich in expletives used mostly in verbal attacks on their adversaries.

The 12th century social reformer saint Basavanna's prescription for spoken words to be deemed as pearls is more quoted and cited by public speakers than inducing people to follow that advisory of the saint. Saying something really inappropriate, wrong things at the wrong time and also on wrong platforms, and speaking in accordance with the idiom putting one's foot in the mouth seems to be the pastime of a large and growing number of intelligentsia in the land, barring rare exceptions.

The British rulers colonising the then sub-continent, now partitioned, have accused of dividing its population on grounds of faiths, ethnicity, regionality, literacy and whatever. The feature of dividing the people only got worse after the land came under self-rule. A great opportunity to rebuild a model nation on the principle drawn from Upanishad, namely "The world is one family" was squandered, a national shame. Identifying oneself as Indian has begun to sound hollow, given the fascination of the small-minded sections in the population saying "One is a relative, the other stranger." We are all strangers to one another in our times more than during the days of British Raj. The flock of intelligentsia is only stoking the outlook of mutual animosity among the diaspora instead of amalgamating them to be one family.

The administration finds itself up against growing insurgency across the land. The nation's intelligentsia has the onerous responsibility of avoiding speeches hurting the one family feeling while some well-marked public speakers are displaying their irrepressible passion to make anti-Indian provocative speeches. If their immature conduct is not indigenous insurgency, what else is?

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

If one reads the book, India-China Boundary Problem 1846-1947 by A.G. Noorani, it is evident that from 1840 to 1911, when the Chinese empire collapsed, the British were practically inviting them to come up to the Karakoram, being more worried about the Russians then. From a common man's point of view, it appears that the territory belonged to no one — neither India nor China. However, China was smart and grabbed it first. To say that it was our territory and remain unaware of a road being built for over two years from Sinkiang (Xinjiang now) to Lhasa appears politically immature. Recall that Nehru said the area was remote and nothing grew there. Mahavir Tyagi responded, "Nothing grows on your head either." — T.R. Ramaswami in Business Standard.

Crickets are worth more than gold

Beijing: Cricket fighting has been popular in China for thousands of years, and with the country in full economic boom, fans of the "sport" are investing more money into it than ever before. One town in particular has built an entire industry around the genetically-superior crickets living in the surrounding fields, the best specimens can reportedly sell for up to 50,000 yuan ($7,661). The crickets found in the fields around the town of Sidian, in China's Shandong province, have long been renowned for their large size and aggressiveness, both very important features among enthusiasts of the sport. In late summer and autumn, the area around Sidian is buzzing during the day and night, this involves spending hours each night trying to catch the elusive insects, an activity that 80% of Sidian engages in every year, but also training them into able fighters to increase their price, brokering transactions, and even operating hotels for cricket buyers traveling to the market from all over China. Almost every household in town is involved in the cricket business in one way or another.

This dog is bad smell sensitive !

Tokyo: A Japanese company has created an adorable robot dog that can tell you how bad your feet smell, by using a powerful sensor embedded in its nose. If your feet don't have bad odour, "Hana-chan" will happily wag its tale, if it detects moderately smelly feet, it will start to bark, and if they really stink, it will just fall over like the smell caused it to faint.

Foot odour is a big deal in Japan, where it is customary for people to take off their shoes whenever they enter someone's home. In fact, subjecting others to foul bodily odours can even be considered harassment in Japan, so some brilliant minds have been dedicating their talent to tackling this issue. Named after a play on the Japanese word for 'nose', the 15-cm robot dog which detect the smelly feet. According to some media reports, Hana-chan can help solve the problem of stinky feet by spraying them with air freshener, but it's unclear whether this feature comes built-in, or if you'll have to pay extra for it.

Replace these damaged plastic lane-dividers

Sir,

Sometime back plastic lane-dividers were fixed on city roads to have a smooth flow of traffic by not blocking the other side of the road and to inculcate lane discipline in vehicle-users. They occupy less space and unlike concrete blocks have better safety to the road-users in the event of crash.

However, most of these plastic posts have been damaged due to the careless driving (as it is government property) by some of the drivers and at many places only the nut and bolts remain on the road (see photo).

Absence of road-dividers is causing a lot of hardship to the vehicles coming in the opposite direction as many are trying to form even third lane on their side while waiting for green signal. Lack of patience and the tendency of being first in the lane are the main reasons for the occupation of maximum space on the road in one direction.

As the city is expected to witness heavy rush of vehicles due to the extended holidays during Dasara period, it is requested that officials concerned may consider erecting new set of plastic lane-dividers, especially in narrow roads like at Kautilya Circle which is choked with heavy traffic during Dasara.

All vehicle-users are also requested to drive carefully not to damage these dividers, which help in regulating the traffic at the cross roads.

Keeping our trains slow and safe!

Sir,

One thing that really made Dr. Javeed Nayeem's article worth reading was the way the writer noted about the panoramic sight that can be viewed when the train travels in moderate speed (SOM dated Sept.8).

The variety of sights is something fabulous and endless literally. The landscapes, the village life from afar, sometimes the stark poverty making one cringe helplessly all make train journey if it is in a sedate pace memorable.

Thanks to the venerable doctor, who really highlights the small but memorable things in life. Keep it up Doc!

'Submit balance-expenditure statement by December'

Legislature Audit Committee instructs Mysore Varsity

Mysuru, Sept. 13 (RK&US)- The Audit Committee of Karnataka Legislature visited Mysore University here yesterday and scrutinised the accounts.

Committee Chairman and MLA S.R. Mahesh asked University Registrar D. Bharati to submit the documents related to balance and expenditure before December.

Mahesh said that the Committee had visited the Varsity for the same purpose thrice and had asked for submission of account details but to no avail.

Losing his cool, Mahesh warned of submitting a report in this regard to the Legislative Assembly Speaker and the Government for further action.

Replying to that, Bharati promised to complete the task of verifying accounts of the year 2014-15 by this month end and added that the job for the year 2015-16 was underway.

Mahesh alleged that a few posts in the Varsity were created though not essential draining Government funds and fees paid by the students.

Referring to irregularities in the appointment of teaching faculty to the Department of Architecture, Mahesh took a strong objection for holding up salaries for faculty and staff of the said Department.

He further alleged that the appointment of Director for the Department of Architecture was improper which had flouted the cadre and recruitment rules of the Government and that of University Grants Commission (UGC).

Mahesh asked the Varsity authorities to prepare the audit report scrupulously retaining discipline and transparency in expenditure.

Expressing unhappiness over the continuous absence of acting Vice-Chancellor Dr. Dayananda Mane, Mahesh sought the reason behind that.

Coming out in Mane's defence, Bharati said that the former was convalescing after discharge from the hospital. Mahesh categorically said that the Committee would plan the next meeting when the acting VC was fit and fine.

Committee Members D.G. Shanthana Gowda, M. Krishna Reddy and Additional Secretary K.S. Ganesh accompanied Mahesh.

Audit Committee of Karnataka Legislature, headed by MLA S.R. Mahesh and Members D.G. Shanthana Gowda, M. Krishna Reddy and Additional Secretary K.S. Ganesh, scrutinising the records at Crawford Hall of University of Mysore, here yesterday.

Pet Talk

Maneka Gandhi

In this week's Pet Talk, Maneka speaks about Animal Feeders Card

Can anyone stop me from feeding stray dogs in a society?

There is no law that prohibits the feeding of street animals. Citizens/animal welfare volunteers who choose to do so are in fact performing a duty cast upon them by the Constitution of India — of showing compassion to all living creatures. Recently, the Animal Welfare Board of India (AWBI), a statutory body under Ministry of Environment and Forests, Government of India, has framed exhaustive guidelines regarding stray dog feeding. These have been placed before and upheld by the High Court of Delhi. The orders passed on Dec. 18, 2009 and Feb. 4, 2010 by the High Court of Delhi, mandate not only that those street dogs will be fed, but that they will be fed in order to confine them to the localities/areas that they belong to. Confining them to the localities that they belong to facilitates area-wise animal birth control, and yearly/annual vaccination.

The Delhi High Court, vide its rulings in 2009 and 2010, has also actually ordered the Delhi Police to protect persons who feed and care for street dogs, and who are often exposed to the ire of ill-informed, ill-advised residents/administrators of those areas. The Delhi High Court, in its judgements, pronounced on 18.12.2009 and 4.2.2010, says that "it is necessary to bring into record that these individuals and families who adopt stray animals are doing a great service to humanity as they are acting in the aid and assistance of Municipal Authorities by providing these animals with food and shelter and also by getting them vaccinated and sterilized. Without assistance of such persons no local Municipal Authority can successfully carry out its ABC programme."

The Court has proceeded to say that "the local Police and the Municipal authorities are under obligation not only to encourage such adoption but also to ensure protection to such persons who come forward to take care of these animals specifically the community or neighbourhood dogs so that they are not subjected to any kind of cruelty," finally, the Court has said "that every individual has the right to live his life in the manner he wants and it is necessary that the society and the community recognise it."

What is the Animal Feeders Card? How will it help?

Animal Welfare Board of India has decided to issue Identity Cards to Street Dog Feeders/Colony Care Takers of Animals who are taking care of animals in their locality. A proforma of registration form can be downloaded from this link: http://awbi.org/

Download the form and send the duly filled form along with the following: Two passport size photographs; self -attested true copy of the Ration Card/ Voter ID/ Driving License/ Passport/ PAN Card to the following address:

ANIMAL WELFARE BOARD OF INDIA

Post Box No. 8672, 13/1, Third Seaward Road, Valmiki Nagar, Thiruvanmiyur, Chennai - 600 041

The applicant needs to fill in personal information such as name, address and experience. Once the application is submitted, the ID card would be processed and mailed to the applicant. Card would have the person's name and an attestation that he/she is doing a right and lawful deed and the Animal Welfare Board supports it. This lends credibility to the person. The AWBI is a legal advisory body that was formed under the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act of 1960 to protect animals.

The goal of the card, which does not provide any exclusive rights, is solely the welfare of animals and caretakers. "Most people don't realise that sterilisation and vaccination of stray dogs would be possible only through feeding and befriending dogs."

In December 2011, the Delhi High Court had passed an order voicing its approval for designated "dog feeding spots" for stray canines in the city. It passed the order on a petition which sought to protect dogs from "intimidating" residents, so they could be fed without any hassle.

The Court also ruled that the Police should assist dog feeders if they faced any "harassment" from residents and also ordered the AWBI to designate specific feeding areas.

What do cloudy eyes in dogs indicate?

Nuclear sclerosis, which is also called lenticular sclerosis, is a condition that causes the pupils of the eyes to take on a cloudy bluish-grey appearance. Many owners of older pets assume the problem is cataracts. And while cataracts are a relatively common symptom in aging dogs and cats, nuclear sclerosis is even more prevalent. The condition is also seen in humans and horses.

Nuclear sclerosis is considered a normal change to the lenses of the eyes. It usually develops in both eyes simultaneously and is often seen in animals over the age of six. The condition isn't painful. It comes on gradually, and pets are able to adapt very well to the minor changes in vision that occur.

In younger animals, the lens of the eye is clear because it is composed of tissue fibres that are perfectly organised. But as a pet grows older, more and more fibres are deposited to the outer rings of the lens. Since the lens resides inside a capsule and can't expand to accommodate the additional fibres, the new fibres push the older fibres close together and toward the centre of the lens. This compression causes the lens to harden and cloud over.

The only clinical symptom of nuclear sclerosis is a cloudy appearance of the lens of the eye. Occasionally, a pet will develop mild problems in judging distance and range.

Most veterinarians can quickly tell the difference between nuclear sclerosis and a more serious problem, like cataracts, with an ophthalmologic exam. The corneas are typically checked first, often using a device called a slit lamp. If there's cloudiness on, or just behind, the cornea, the problem is not nuclear sclerosis.

When your vet looks deeper into the eye with an ophthalmoscope, which may require the use of medicated drops in your pet's eyes, he or she will be able to see all the way through to the retina if nuclear sclerosis is present. If the problem is a cataract, it will partially or completely block the view of the retina. If your vet can't see through the lens, neither can your pet.

Unlike cataracts, nuclear sclerosis doesn't seriously affect vision and no treatment is necessary. And if your pet has nuclear sclerosis, it doesn't mean she will automatically also develop cataracts. However, if you notice your pet's eyes taking on a different colour, it's very important that your vet make sure it's nuclear sclerosis and not another more serious eye condition.

What happens if I bathe my dog too often?

The dog will develop skin problems, like dry itchy skin. Dogs have natural oils on their skin and, unlike humans, they should not be washed away.

On your mark...

Mysuru, Sept.13 (SBD&NNN)- There was not a single dry eye as the specially-abled children stole the hearts of the people gathered at the start of Dasara Yuva Sambhrama with their steps, dancing to a few popular Kannada tunes, at the Amphitheatre in Manasagangothri here yesterday.

The District Administration's move to kick start the 408th Dasara celebrations involving the youth of the State, first, before larger things unfold, is a step in the right direction as they are exposed to the rich tradition and culture of the State.

Mayor M.J. Ravikumar, actress Karunya Ram and other dignitaries after lighting the lamp inaugurated the Sambhrama by playing musical instruments used in folk dances like Kamsale, Nagari, Dolu, thus setting the mood for the celebration till Sept. 18.

Heart-touching performance: The special children of Karunamayi Foundation danced to the tunes of patriotic songs of the State. They were all clad in traditional dresses sporting yellow bands around their heads and the songs with patriotic fervour included 'Huttidare Kannadanadalli huttabeku...', 'Kannadada Sidda Hadodakke Yedda...','Karunade Kaichachide Node...,' for which they matched the steps to the tunes.

Their performance was so heart-touching and extraordinary, many including the youth who had gathered in large numbers felt that God had created this special children to inspire others who always grumble in spite of having all senses in place. At the end of the performance, there was a spontaneous standing ovation for the talented children and they did not forget to laud the choreographer Appu for his time and effort in preparing these special children.

The dance-drama presented by Jnana Aithal, the young talented dancer from Mangaluru and her troupe was very attractive when they presented it in Lavani style. Jnana also presented Bollywood and Kathak style dances and she danced to the tunes of a few Hindi songs including 'Laila o Laila.' She also performed the popular dance number 'Kuniyonabara' that had won her a first prize in a TV show, to the delight of the youth gathered.

It is not only humans, even Gods descended on the earth to participate in the clean India campaign. Nearly 50 students of Government PU Composite College from Santhemala in Bannuru presented a special dance-drama on the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan theme invoking Lord Ganesha and Lord Shiva. The value-based theme conceived and choreographed by Raju was applauded by the audience.

In the beginning, the dance feature 'Navadurgeyarige Namana,' presented by the students of Karnataka State Dr. Gangubai Hangal Music and Performing Arts University, stirred the hearts of the people.

The students from Maharani Lakshmi Ammanni College, Bengaluru, Hari Vidyalaya, JSS PU College, Bannimantap, Government FGC College, Vontikoppal, Government FGC, T. Narasipur and others presented a variety of programmes.

Jumbo Chef beckons foodies

Dasara Special Officer D. Randeep launched the Dasara Aahara Mela tableau here this morning at the DC Office premises. The publicity vehicle designed by artist Prakash Chikkapalya carries the logo of Aahara Mela with the Ambari concept depicting the caparisoned elephant with the Chef as the Mahout and the basket containing fruits and other delicacies as the Howdah. This vehicle will travel across the City from 9 am to 8 pm till Sept. 30, informing people about the Aahara Mela to be held at Scouts and Guides ground and at the MUDA ground near Lalitha Mahal from Sept. 21.

No entry for private vehicles

As per the proposal, the KSRTC will operate free buses from the Lalitha Mahal Helipad and passengers can leave the vehicle at the Helipad. The frequency of the buses will be decided as per the number of people waiting to go up the Hill. The fares will be reimbursed to the KSRTC by the Government.

EXEMPTION TO VILLAGERS

The private vehicle ban will, however, not apply to VVIPS, the villagers residing atop the Hill and for those who come under the Chamundi Hill Village Panchayat. Special passes will be distributed for them by the District Administration.

Sources said that the Chamundi Village Panchayat has already begun a survey to take stock of the number of vehicles owned by villagers. Registration numbers are being noted down and the number of vehicles in each house is calculated to issue passes. Also, the list of people who leave for daily jobs and their vehicles are being scanned to provide passes, sources said.

Iconic Postman, Policeman statues to be shifted soon

"We do not want to take chances as the statues are of great heritage value and they recall the contribution of Postman Basappa and Police Constable Bhujangarao Jagadale," DC Randeep added.

The statue of the postman is probably the only one in India. The statue has been erected in honour of Postman Basappa or Anche (post) Basappa who was a postman during the reign of Maharaja Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar.

The Maharaja recognised Basappa's contribution in delivering posts to the doorsteps of people and he installed his statue in 1917. Historians say that Anche Basappa was an athlete who later became a postman. Rain or shine, he used to run to the doorsteps of one house to the other to deliver posts without fail.

In 1917, the Maharaja also installed the statue of Bhujangarao Jagadale, a constable known for his baritone voice while doing the guard of honour for the Maharaja. The Policeman's statue was installed close to the statue of the postman.

13,875-kg rice donated to Kalladka schools

Former Minister S.A. Ramdas (second from right) is seen symbolically handing over a rice bag to Kalladka Prabhakar Bhat in front of Mysore Palace North Gate this morning as former President of Mysuru Travels Association C.A. Jayakumar (extreme right), Mysore Hotel Owners Association President C. Narayanagowda and Mysuru Travels Association President B.S. Prashanth look on.

Mysuru, Sept. 13 (MTY&VNS)- With the Congress-led State Government withdrawing financial aid and mid-day meal facilities to Sri Rama Vidya Kendra and Sri Devi Vidya Kendra located at Kalladka in Bantwal taluk in Dakshina Kannada, school trustee Kalladka Prabhakar Bhat has been visiting various places in the State. He has been collecting donations to run the school as well as provide mid-day meals for around 3,400 students studying in both the institutions.

In an effort to join the other donors, various institutions in Mysuru including Let's do It Mysore!, Safe Wheels, Alliance Square, Mysuru Hotel Owners' Association handed over 13,875 kg rice (555 rice bags of 25kg each) to Prabhakar Bhat in front of Palace North Gate, this morning.

On receiving the rice bags, Prabhakar Bhat said that Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, who claims to be a champion of backward communities and minorities, had deprived 94 per cent of the schools' children their right for mid-day meals. The children come from poor backgrounds and hail from the dalit, adivasi and backward castes, he said.

"Ever since the State Government withdrew benefits to the institutions, I have launched a campaign 'Bhikshandehi' to collect foodgrains as it was better to collect from the people instead of begging the State Government which had discriminatory and unfair attitude towards the institutions", he added.

He also said that the schools were building nationalist ideology among students and not communal or casteist ideologies as accused by a few sections of the society.

Former Minister S.A. Ramdas, Mysuru Travels Association President B.S Prashanth, Hotel Owners Association President C. Narayanagowda, Mysuru Travels Association's former President C.A. Jayakumar and others were present.

'I don't know Gauri Lankesh'

Reacting to questions on the recent killing of journalist Gauri Lankesh, Prabhakar Bhat said he had no idea about Gauri Lankesh or her father Lankesh and added that he had never seen the paper published by them. "RSS never supports violence. Instead, it has always promoted building a stronger nation. People, who are unable to digest the good work done by the RSS have indulged in false propaganda," he said and added that freedom of speech and expression must not be misused to curb one's rights and defame others.

Dasara Flower Show at Kukkarahalli Lake from Sept. 20

The workers seen watering the plants at Crawford Hall premises. The flower show will be inaugurated on Sept. 20.

Mysuru, Sept.13 (US)- Over 4,500 pots with about 30 varieties of flower plants have blossomed with colourful flowers at Crawford Hall premises here which will be shifted to the banks of Kukkarahalli Lake where the Dasara Flower Show, organised by Mysore University, would commence from Sept. 20.

For the last 11 years, the Mysore University has been organising the Flower Show at the Lake. Three months in advance, about 37 trained staff of Horticulture Department of Mysore University, readied the pots with soil and planted the seeds of the flower plants. The pots were periodically nurtured with fertilizers and nutrients resulting in the plants bearing flowers and blossoming now. The attractive flowers have been drawing the attention of the public who are posing for selfies with them.

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS: Flower show is one of the major attractions during Dasara celebrations. The workers at Zilla Panchayat premises are seen arranging the pots in an orderly fashion.

Road-ready for Dasara...

Even as rain pounds the city and roads are damaged, it is a heartening sight to see that the District Administration is gearing up for Dasara at least by giving a fresh coat of paint to the medians in important roads of the city. Workers in deep concentration are seen painting the median strip on Hunsur Road near Paduvarahalli (Vinayakanagar). Picture right shows the painters on Chamaraja Double Road painting the strip, even as vehicles pass by.

Hoover, Gowtham steer Belagavi Panthers to victory

Stalin Hoover of Belagavi Panthers is seen receiving the Man of the Match Award.

Mysuru, Sept. 13 - Belagavi Panthers got one over the defending champion, Ballari Tuskers, in the Karbonn Smartphones Karnataka Premier League 2017, powered by Cycle Pure Agarbathies, yesterday securing a 25-run victory.

Stalin Hoover scored a 43-ball 62 to help set Ballari a target of 155 before K. Gowtham's 4 for 23 helped restrict them to 129 for 9 at the SDNR Wadiyar Ground in Mysuru. The victory helped Belagavi jump past Hubli Tigers to the top of the table.

Put in, Belagavi got off to a blistering start thanks to Hoover's belligerence. He was dropped on 11 off Amit Verma and it proved costly. To drive home the point, Hoover hit consecutive boundaries, including a six, off Bhavesh Gulecha in the next over. His partner, B.R. Sharath, fell to Gulecha and K. Gowtham (5) didn't last long either, but Hoover just carried on, notching up his half-century off just 32 balls with a six off I.G. Anil in the ninth over.

Manish Pandey, at the other end, scored an adventurous 12-ball 24 before holding out to Anil.

Two balls later, Hoover holed out as well, having scored a fine 43-ball 62. At that point, in the 13th over, Belagavi were 111 for 4. With his dismissal, the run-rate slowed down.

S. Rakshith scored a fighting 13-ball 14, but the rest of the line-up failed to back him up, all falling for single digit scores. It meant Belagavi were bowled out for 154, with two balls remaining, Prateek Jain ran through the tail to return with the figures of 3 for 29.

The total didn't seem too threatening at the outset, but Belagavi were excellent with the ball. Ballari took things slow, knowing the target wasn't too daunting. Unfortunately for them, Belagavi dismissed their batsmen before they could do significant damage.

All the while, Pawan kept the scoreboard ticking, although not as fast as he would have liked. When C.M. Gautam (11) failed to get going as well, bowled by S. Arvind, Belagavi knew it was their day.

Brief scores: Belagavi Panthers 154 in 19.4 overs (Stalin Hoover 62, Manish Pandey 24; Prateek Jain 3-29, Amit Verma 2-19) beat Ballari Tuskers 129 for 9 in 20 overs (K.B. Pawan 64 not out, Abhinav Manohar 21; K. Gowtham 4-23).

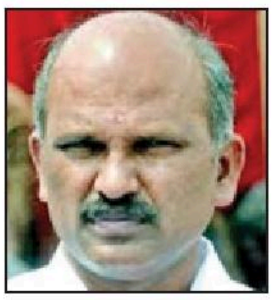
TN Police raid Kodagu Resort where AIADMK MLAs are holed up

MLAs are supporters of Sasikala loyalist T.T.V. Dhinakaran; Police search for MLA P. Palaniappan



MLA P. Palaniappan

Suntikoppa (Kodagu), Sept. 13 (ACP& BCT)- A team of Police personnel from Tamil Nadu (TN) raided the posh Paddington Resort near here yesterday where a group of 15 AIADMK MLAs owing allegiance to party's sidelined leader and Sasikala confidant T.T.V. Dhinakaran has been camping. The raiding team was headed by the Deputy Superintendent of the CCB.

It is said, the raid was carried out to question MLA P. Palaniappan in connection with a criminal case. But Palaniappan had vacated the resort two days before the raid. Sources said a group of 20-22 Police personnel led by Coimbatore CCB Dy.SP Velumurugan came in three vehicles. They were in plain clothes but wore their uniform before entering the resort. After sometime, they went back as they did not find Palaniappan inside the resort.

Kodagu SP Rajendra Prasad said that four Dy.SPs and 25 other personnel came to the resort in connection with the case booked against Palaniappan in Namakkal Police Station. Palaniappan represents Papireddypatti in Dharmapuri district. "He checked-in on Sept. 10 and checked-out the next day. He was not present when the team came," Prasad said. The case against Palaniappan, booked under Section 306 of the IPC following the suicide of Subramani, contractor of Namakkal Medical College, is under investigation by the Crime Branch of CID in Tamil Nadu.

The team, according to the MLAs, also questioned them about their "nature of stay" and whether they were staying at the behest of someone or of their own will. "The Police behaved very rudely with the MLAs. Their tone was quite rude and they did not treat us in the manner we should have been as the people's representatives," Andipatti MLA Thanga Tamilselvan told reporters.

"Once the team got convinced that he was not there, they returned without disturbing anyone," Police sources said, adding that they had informed the Kodagu District Police about their visit.

Tamilselvan alleged that the raid was intended to 'create an atmosphere of fear' among the MLAs, but said they will not be 'intimidated.' "We are staying here on our own. Why should the TN Police come raid us here? If they think we will get intimidated, they are wrong," he said.

AIADMK MLAs are believed to have been staying in Paddington Resort since Sept. 6. Resort authorities said that the Police team came yesterday afternoon but left after they did not find the MLA they were looking for. They said a group of tourists from Tamil Nadu were among the guests in the resort. They checked-in two days ago and are likely to leave in a day or two, they said.

SASIKALA EXPELLED

With its government in Tamil Nadu still short of the 117-mark to establish a majority in the State Assembly, the united AIADMK yesterday moved to consolidate its position by sacking its jailed interim General Secretary V.K. Sasikala from the top post. At a General Council meeting, the ruling group, headed by Chief Minister E. Palaniswami and Deputy Chief Minister O. Panneerselvam, announced that late J. Jayalalithaa would be the party's permanent General Secretary.

The meeting also cancelled all appointments and decisions taken by Sasikala as party chief between Dec. 30, 2016, and Feb. 15, 2017, including the appointment of her nephew T.T.V Dhinakaran as Deputy General Secretary. Besides, the meeting decided to nullify all appointments made by Dhinakaran.

Meanwhile, responding to the latest development, Dhinakaran said, "The time has come to send this government home." Speaking to reporters in Madurai, he said, "Only the General Secretary can convene a General Council meeting. Whatever happened today was not a General Council but a mere meeting of CM Palaniswami. This government has to fall."

World's most expensive coffee, made of civet cat poop, now available in Kodagu

New Delhi, Sept. 13 - India, Asia's third-largest producer and exporter of coffee, has started producing world's most expensive coffee, made from the poop of civet cat, on a small scale in Kodagu. The Civet Coffee is expensive because of uncommon method of producing such a coffee.

It's mainly produced on the Indonesian island of Sumatra and it is highly priced because it is claimed to be more nutritious and high cost involved in sourcing animal dropping, wastage during processing and quality certification.

Civet Coffee, also called Kopi Luwak, is produced from the coffee beans digested by civet cat. The faeces of this cat are collected, processed and sold. Asian palm civet is a weasel-like animal that looks a lot like a cat. These wild animals eat coffee beans as part of their balanced diet. The faeces of this cat are then collected, processed and sold as Kopi Luwak. It is believed that the natural enzymes secreted while digestion improves the taste and flavour of the coffee beans.

In India, the coffee bean is being sold for Rs. 8,000 per kg, whereas, in Gulf nations and European countries, it costs Rs. 20,000-25,000 per kg. In Kodagu, a start-up firm, Coorg Consolidated Commodities (CCC), has made a humble beginning of making the luxury coffee on a small scale and has also decided to open a cafe to serve the brew locally.

"Initially, 20 kg of Civet Coffee was produced. After establishing the start-up firm, 60 kg was produced in 2015-16 and 200 kg last year. We hope half a tonne production from the new crop to be harvested from October," Narendra Hebbar, one of the founders of CCC said.

The exotic coffee is being sold locally under the brand 'Ainmane', he said and added that the company has only one outlet at Club Mahindra Madikeri Resort. Hebbar also shared that the company sources the animal poop from plantations located close to forest from where civet cats come to eat the ripest coffee bean cherries.

"Civet cat eats flesh of the coffee cherries and not the bean. Natural enzymes in civet's stomach enhance the bean flavour and that's why this coffee is unique," he said. Now, farmers understand the importance of this coffee and "we produce it in natural form unlike other countries where civet cats are caged and forcefully fed with coffee beans," he noted.

"We want to promote this coffee locally. We will open a cafe soon. We will sell 'Coorg Luwark Coffee' along with other varieties like Cappuccino and Espresso," he said. A senior Coffee Board official also confirmed that civet cat coffee is being produced in small quantities in parts of Kodagu and Chamarajanagar districts.

WORD OF THE DAY

Insolent

Pronunciation: in-suh-luhnt
Meaning: Showing a rude or arrogant lack of respect; boldly rude or disrespectful; contemptuously impertinent; insulting.
Example: "The child's insolent behaviour was unacceptable."
Origin: First known use of the term insolent is in the 14th century. The WORD is known to have come from the Latin word insolens meaning unaccustomed or overbearing.

THE ODD WORD

Yawl

Ship's small boat; sailboat carrying mainsail and one or more jibs.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Ginned up

Meaning: Drunk; by drinking gin or other alcoholic drink. Alternatively; enlivened.

Origin: Gin has been used as a verb with several meanings:
To start - clearly a synonym of 'begin'. This is old and is cited in Wycliffe's Bible, 1382: "Heeregynneth the prologe in the boc of Ecclesiastes. Ibid. i. heading, Heergynneth the booc." It also means to remove the seeds of cotton from. From the Transactions of the Society of Arts, 1789: "It is the easiest of all Cotton to gin." To drink liquor, especially gin.
From the Helena Independent, 1881:
In New England when a man is drunk he is "on a tool," in Chicago he is "on a hoorah," in St Louis he "has a dash too much up his nose," in Kansas City he is "ginned up for all that's out;" in St. Joe, "the benzine has the upper hold;" in Omaha "he's on it bigger'n an Injun;" in Denver "he slung in a bowl too much;" in Cheyenne "the duffer's got it in the neck;" in Leadville "the galoot's on a roareragin!;" in Bismark "he fills up with bug juice and gets fuller'n a goose"... There are several others too. And clearly, with so many meanings of the word, any of which could be the source of 'gin up', the derivation isn't straightforward.
